Fun Foody Facts

Here are some Fun Facts for you to enjoy while you are waiting for your delicious food today (please don't quiz your waiter - they might get the answers wrong!)

Did you know?

- Lemons contain more sugar than strawberries.
- During their lifetime the average person eats a whopping 35 tonnes of food.
- You're more likely to be hungry if you're cold!
 - Broccoli is closely related to cabbage - another one of those 'greens' we're always being told to eat up.
- Did you know raw garlic can help keep mosquitoes away - and some people too!
- Ask a friend if they think a tomato is a fruit or vegetable and see if they know the answer (it's a fruit!).
